

Across

- 1 I hear we've had three of these latest fellows down the years (7)
- 6 A May afternoon in Bradford in the nineties was as good as it got for this defender (6)
- 9 He should have been signed from Leyton Orient! (4)
- 10 Bench goalkeeper (5)
- 12 Rebel Seychelles footballers go back to work in honour of one time City midfielder/full back (5)
- 13 We've had four of them (5)
- 16 Bug a Caledonian (8)
- 19 Yelled mix up in Australia (6)

- 20 Striker whose last City goals came in a big win on New Year's Day (6)
- 22 His one appearance for us came in an 'infamous' match with Swansea (4)
- 23 Complete midfielder player (4)
- 24 Carrying a bulb so I'm told (11)

Down

- 2 Ogre energises Cardiff defence? If only, he wasn't very good (6)
- 3 Decisive striker by the sound of it (4)
- 4 One time partner of a Doctor Who assistant, ?????? is a bit of an acting legend, having appeared in Godspell, Blake's Seven, Dixon of

- Dock Green, The Sweeney, Grange Hill, Z-Cars, Eastenders and Coronation Street (where he played Alan Skidmore) Who were we playing when he scored for us - well, kind of! (7)
- 5 Goalkeeper turns nasty? (8)
- 7 Right back and left back with something in common (7)
- 8 Defender will fast till he plays up front! (8)
- 11 Add the leader to the wash and you may end up with an international (8)
- 14 A link between the late fifties and late eighties/early

- nineties at Cardiff City (3,6)
- 15 Highest number of goals scored by City in a post war league game (5)
- 17 This plant travelled on the QE2 with stops in Sierra Leone and on Ascension Island nearly forty years ago in another existence (4,5)
- 18 Number of goals Andy Legg scored for City (6)
- 21 The one goal in Peter Whittingham's career that was not scored for Cardiff City came against which team? (7)